GRAIN AND PRODUCE MARKET

Traders Selling Shorts, but Cover Up for Fear of Peace and a Breaking Market.

ALL GRAINS ARE A BIT LOWER

OMAHA, March 26, 1915. Wall street is talking peace and bulling stocks, and the grain traders are afraid that peace might be declared overnight. Which they expect, would cause a had break in prices. The disposition of a majority of traders is to sell shorts, but as one of the loading bears put it. They cover up ever night, especially in corn. Traders who have been extremely bearish early they are now convervative so, on say they are now conservative so on breaks.

breaks.

Exports of domestic wheat and flour in February, as officially amounced, fell short of preliminary estimates, but were generally in line with the expectations of local traders, They exceeded those of last year by about 23,000,000 bu. Exports of corn and oats were larger than expected.

last year by about 33,000,000 bu. Exports of corn and oats were larger than expected.

Despite the fears of peace among traders here, England is buying oats freely for July and August stipment.

Russian wheat crop in fifty-three European governments, exclusively of ten in Poland, for 1914, is officially reported at 572,000,000 bu., or 252,000,000 bu. less than in 1913. Winter rye crop was 780,000,000 bu., or 95,000,000 bu. less than in 1913, while the oats crop is 580,000,000 bu. or 251,000,000 bu. against 520,000,000 bu., against 520,000,000 bu., against 520,000,000 bu., against 520,000,000 bu., against 73,000,000 bu. in 1913.

Weekly wheat requirements of the United Kingdom, Belgium and Holland are estimated by Broomhall at 7,300,000 bushels for the remainder of the crop year. According to his view the Indian government intends to purchase practically the entire crop of that country at a comparatively low figure, and secure the profit which exists between that price and the international figures.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND PROVISIONS

Features of the Trading and Closing Prices on Board of Trade. CHICAGO, March 28.—Assertions that the Turks had disagreed with the Germans, and that Houmania and Bulgaria were about to take a hand in the war put the wheat market today under a good deal of selling pressure. As a rescult, prices closed weak, at ½c to %c het decline. Other losses for the day were the decline. Other losses for the day were the decline. Other losses for the day were the foreign advices ruled the wheat market from Liverpool, said to be largely the consequence of expected big shipments from Liverpool, said to be largely the consequence of expected big shipments from Argentins, gave the bears an advantage at the outset.

Not long afterward came the rumors that Turkey had broken with Germany. Railles followed when it was found such reports were unverified, if not entirely false, but setting was quickly renewed ewing to word of hostilities imminent on the part of Roumania and of Bulgaria, as well as the prospects even more threatening as to the attitude of Italy. Auspicious conditions for the domestic crop were influential as a means of keeping sentiment adverse to the bulls. Besides, cash export demand was slow, both here and at the seaboard. A further source of discouragement to holders was a report that Russia was preparing to ship 20,000 tons of wheat from Vladivostok.

Aggressive selling by pit speculators CHICAGO, March Di-Assertions

Aggressive selling by pit speculators forced down corn. Wheat weakness formed the chief incentive, but in addition, eastern demand was poor, and Argentine at a sharp decline. Oats sagged with corn and whest. The best buying was attributed to shorts.

Despite some wavering at the outset provisions finally took the upgrade. Fackers and other recent sellers were conspicuous in the purchasing that carried the market higher.
